FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PREVIEW SERVICES ACQUIRES DATA MANAGEMENT COMPANY

Preview Services Ltd - one of the UK's leading document scanning and document management outsourcing organisations has acquired the trade and assets of February Automation Ltd.

Established in 1965, February Automation has been successfully offering a range of data management solutions including data capture and verification, database building and maintenance, response handling, mailing work and data storage to large blue chip and government organisations throughout the UK. Some of its clients include organisations such as Legal & General, Vodafone and the Conservative Party Central Office.

With the same ethos of providing an excellent quality service without compromise to its clients and affording a high level of flexibility, February Automation fits well with Preview's document management, scanning and archiving activities.

Commenting on the acquisition, Preview's Managing Director, Mike James said, "We are delighted to have acquired the skills and experience of a business that has been at the forefront of the industry for so long and we look forward to welcoming their clients into our organisation."

Tom Fuller, February Automation's MD for many years, will be joining Preview and was also delighted with the move. "With Preview's market strength and knowledge I am sure we can offer our clients an even better service and introduce them to a whole new range of services for the future."
